The attendance at the Masonic Bazaar last night was large as usual. Although it has now been in continuance for nearly a week there does not appear to have been any diminition in the activity of the corps of workers who are contributing so greatly both to the financial and social success of the affair. Last night, designated as "Grotto" night, was featured by the appearance of a Ladies' Band, led by Miss Varney, of Washington, which rendered a very delightful and varied program.

Interest stil continues in the loving cup to be presented to the most popular railroad man at the fair, and which was donated by President Fairfax Harrison, of the Southern Railway. To date the vote stands:

L. O. Hardin, 129; E. F. Ticer, 100; E. H. Kemper, 47; A. J. Ross, 41; S. L. McEstes, 19; R. W. Goldsworthy, 54; K. L. Lambert, 22; W. L. Finks, 13; E. Fuller, 9; C. E. Dare, 4; W. H. F. Finke, 4; C. R. Keith, 2; J. W. Gerber, 1; J. T. Stephenson, 1.

The ladies in charge of the varlous booths are making a strenous effort to have a good showing for tonight when it is expected that there will be a record attendance.

The dancing in the latter part of each evening is attracting many young people to the Bazaar and is proving one of most popular and enjoyable features.

Tonight is to be Firemen's Night and it is expected, from advices received, that practically the entire contingent of the fire-fighters will be on hand to take their part in making the Bazaar a success.

MISSING COUPLE CAUGHT

Charles Baum, and Margarite Eareheart, who have been sought by Alexandria relatives and friends during the past two months, have been located at last. The couple are now in Atlanta, Ga., in charge of the federal authorities, who are considering the advisability of urging the charge of white slavery against Baum. The latter is 22 years old, and is from Baltimore. Mis Eareheart, is 16. She is from this city. The young woman told the authorities in Atlanta that Baum brought her to Atlanta from Alexandria on a motorcycle. Baum, who has a wife and baby in Baltimore said that the girl dared him to run away with her and that he accepted the dare.

As was stated in the Gazette when the elopement was discovered, the young woman in the case is a daughter of Mrs. Harry L. Litchford, of 1105 Duke street, and J. W. Eareheart, of Hagerstown, Md.

The girl disappeared from her home in this city on the afternoon of August 21. It was stated at the time that she was in the company of Chas. H. Baum, of Baltimore, and left with Baum for a ride on a motorcycle.

After waiting six days for the girl to return, the Alexandria police were requested to institute a search.

In a letter written recently by the mother to the Richmond police, asking them to institute search for the girl, the mother is quoted as saying: "The suspense is awful, and I can hardly stand it much longer. I am satisfied she was kidnapped, because she seemed perfectly satisfied at home."

MYSTERIOUS DEATH

Body of Colored Man Discovered on Southern Tracks by Switching Crew

The crew operating Southern Railway trains on Union street made a ghastly discovery at the intersection of Wolfe and Union streets between ten and eleven o'clock last night. The body of a colored man, horribly mutilated, was found between the rails. There were indications to show that the body had been dragged some distance by the train. The head was crushed and one of the legs severed. No one could identify the unfortunate man, and the station house was notified of the occurrence. Officers soon repaired to the scene, and the remains were taken to Wheatley's undertaking establishment.

There was every reason to believe that the man had been proceeding along the track in a northerly direction and had fallen on the rails. In the direction of the Wilkes street tunnel there were evidences that a man under the influence of liquor had been on the curve leading from Wilkes to Wolfe street.

Doctor T. Marshall Jones, the Coroner, held an inquest over the remains at eleven o'clock this morning. The jury was composed of A. A. Paul (foreman), J. A. Marshall, Lewellyn Dyson, John W. Garner, J. H. Fisher and John McCuen.

After examining witnesses, including several colored persons, none of whom could identify the decensed, the jury returned the following verdict:

"That said unknown colored man came to his death by being run over by a shifting locomotive of the Southern Railway Company about 10:20 o'clock p. m. October 13, 1916. on Union street, south of Wolfe. We, the jury, find that no flagman preceded the engine from the evidence of witnesses before the jury."

Two negroes who were in jail this summer for some offense say they are confident the remains are those of a negro named Joe Brown, one of their fellow prisoners. Brown was arrested last summer for cutting a negro named "Hoggy" Jackson. The latter left the city and Brown was finally released.

ANNE LEE MEMORIAL

Is Presented to State Convention of Daughters of Confederacy at Lynchburg by Mrs. L. E. Uhler as Worthy of aid.

Mrs. Lycurgus E. Uhler, first vice-president of the Anne Lee Memorial Home for the Aged, recently opened in Alexandria, before the Convention of the United Daughters of the Confederacy, now in session in Lynchburg, on Wednesday night delivered a stirring and powerful address in behalf of the Home.

Mrs. Uhler has asked that the State Division appropriate $1,000 to furnish and endow a room in the Home to be used for the widow or daughter of a Confederate Veteran who can be sent here from any section of Virginia.

Mrs. Uhler's address, in part, follows:

Madam President and Daughters of the Confederacy:

As first vice president of the Board of Governors of the Anne Lee Memorial Home of the Aged it is my privilege and great pleasure to speak to you today on a subject which must appeal to every Southern woman. A memorial to Anne Carter Lee, the mother of Virginia's illustrious soldier and statesman, General Robert Edward Lee, whose brave deeds, noble patriotism and honorable record won for him undying fame and the love and devotion of a grateful Confederacy. Of his mother General Lee once said "All I am I owe to my mother," and General Fitzhugh Lee writes of her, "I have always heard that to her noble influence the perfect formation of General Lee's character was due." Thus to Anne Carter Lee the South owes her illustrious leader.

About seventeen years ago the women of Alexandria, prompted by a desire to commemorate the virtues of the mother of their beloved general, formed an association, "The Anne Lee Memorial Association," of which Mrs. L. Wilbur Reid, now president of the Seventeenth Virginia Regiment, chapter U. D. C., of Alexandria, was president. Sufficient funds were not raised at that time for a suitable memorial and the money was invested. In March, 1915, the work was again taken up, a board of governors elected and plans formed to make the memorial a home of the aged.

No more suitable place for this memorial could be selected than Alexandria; Anne Lee's home was there, she was a member of Old Christ Church and but a few miles away at Ravensworth her remains lie buried. And no more beautiful tribute to her memory than the care of the aged, who are without home and loved ones to brighten their few remaining years.

It was in Alexandria in the yard of Old Christ Church, of which he was at that time a member, and vestryman, that General Lee announced his determination to cast his lot with his native State in the pending conflict, stating his purpose to leave next day to join the army of the Confederacy and offer his sword in defence of his native State.

We have purchased the old colonial home of the Herbert family in the historic section of our city, within a few steps of the Carlyle House, Braddock House and General Washington's headquarters, ideal for our purpose, with wonderful possibilities but very much out of repair. When all improvements are completed we will accommodate from 20 to 25 inmates.

The Seventeenth Virginia Regiment chapter through the untiring energy of our president, Mrs. L. Wilbur Reid, has erected a colonial portico and entrance at a cost of $700, and on the ground floor is a beautifully furnished reception room which is also a gift of the Seventeenth chapter. Checks have been sent to the chairman of the Finance Committee from the "New York chapter" and "The Mary Mildred Sullivan chapter of New York," "The Dixie Club of New York" and also Maryland Chapter of Baltimore and Fairfax chapter of Fairfax. And we most earnestly solicit the co-opera-

PAFF CO'S SHOES BOOST

Alexandria in every Section of the Country—Output of 5000 Pairs per Week is Distributed From Coast to Coast

From the French Market in New Orleans to the sardine factories in Lubec, Maine, and from the Golden Gate to Hell Gate, little toddlers wear the shoes made in Alexandria, by the Paff Shoe Company, the firm being composed of Charles Bendheim, Judge Louis C. Barley and Congressman C. C. Carlin. These three men, through their investments in the company, are carrying the name of Alexandria into practically every city and village of the United States. And because of the fact that the Paff shoes are known as good shoes they are making the name of Alexandria well and favorably known.

Turning Five Thousand Pairs of Shoes a Week.

The average output of the Paff Shoe Company is 5,000 pairs of shoes per week. Throughout the South they are sold direct to the trade by a corps of sixteen salesmen who work from California to the Atlantic coast. In the North the output of the factory is handled hrough jobbers. Since the organization of the company there has been a steady demand for its output as quality has always been one of the prime considerations of its owners and officials.

The factory, a large square brick building is located on south Washington street a block below the tannery of C. C. Smoot and Sons. Although it has been standing some years, it has all the modern improvements in the shape of plenty of large windows, wide floor space, high ceilings and adequate heating and ventilating systems. The effect of these is seen in the manner and appearance of the hundred and more men and women, most of them young, who comprise the working force of the factory.

Alexandrians Hold World Record.

In the plant are many of the very latest machines known to the shoe world. There are ingenious, almost human fingered machines, with delicate steel mechanisms which drive seven and nine tacks home in an instant and with a precision that would be impossible to human fingers. That the men operating these take a pride in their work was recently amply demonstrated when it was found that the force engaged in the work of turning the shoes, for example, achieved what is considered to be a world's record. It has, in any event, been so declared in the journal of the United Shoe Machinery Company, published in Boston. The nine men composing the crew of the pulling over machine, which does away with the old lasting process, handled 1008 pairs of shoes in nine hours. This record has not yet been beaten.

There is an old joke about paper in shoes. Just now the shoe men say that such paper as they have to use, but not to go in the soles, as is popularly supposed, has advanced something like one hundred per cent. And leather! At mention of this they simply throw up their hands.

Leather From All Parts of the World.

It has probably not entered into the minds of the great majority of people that any other than the skin of the cow, or mayhap the kid, enters into the composition of their shoes. They do not know that they may be walking about in leather that came from India or China, or the Russian steppes or the Scotch hills, or the mountain passes of little known Persia.

As a matter of fact colt and sheep and goat, in addition to calf and cowskins are used in the various grades of shoes made in the Paff factory. And one of the causes of the scarcity and high price of leather just now lies in the fact that many huge cargoes from Europe and points in Asia have been held up in the warehouses of England and the steamers which were carryin gthem deflected to more warlike purposes. And so, because of the insufficient supply of leather for certain special kinds of shoes, there is ample excuse for the advance in the price of footwear, at least.

MOVEMENT FOR CHRISTIAN ASSOCIATION.

As will be seen elsewhere a men's meeting was held in the Young People's Building last night, at which addresses were delivered by Judge Barley, Councilman Henry K. Field, delegate J. Fred Birrell, former Delegate James R. Caton and Mr. H. H. Newton. The gathering was an echo of the recent evangelical campaign in Alexandria, and the object was to devise ways and means for the formation of a Young Men's Christian Association in Alexandria.

Alexandria for many years had its Young Men's Christian Association but later on, however, it was allowed to lag and finally disband. At the close of its career virtually but one man was on the active list. That earnest Alexandria has long since entered into his eternal home. He often conducted the meetings alone, offering up the prayers and acting as the vocalist.

In ante bellum days the headquarters of the Young Men's Christian Association was at the northeast corner of Prince and Washington streets. Its activities were temporarily suspended a tthe outbreak of the civil war, but after the close of the conflict it again appeared in the gospel field and for a long time was a valuable auxiliary to the churches. In those days street corner meetings were held and the gospel carrid to every section of the city.

Th association, like the laymen's league of today, was composed of members of virtually all the churches of the city. Resident ministers accompanied the association in its movements and delivered open-air addresses.

THhe meeting last night may result in the reorganization of this valuable adjunct to the church.

FRUITS OF DEMOCRATIC ADMINISTRATION

The following from Bradstreet's review of trade in the United States is the best answer that can be given republican charges against the Wilson administration. Our opponents no longer appeal to the full dinner pail:

"Trade, as well as industry, continues extraordinarily active, in which respect the situation shows little or no variation from recently preceding weeks.

Buying for next spring, while broadening, includes some conservatism. Prices are still high, labor is scarce, the railways are buying more freely in the steel market, and pig iron is higher.

There is no let-up to export business, but shipments have been retarded by submarine attacks on shipping on the Atlantic coast.

Collections are good, and interior merchants, profiting from the advantages of high prices for farm products more than offsetting shortages, are paying off old debts. Seemingly comparatively few past due debts will be carried into next year.

Shipbuilding is thriving as never before, and inquiries respecting new vessels continue to come forward at a noteworthy rate. Manufacturers in general are not able to stock up to any extent as the demands and with the high prices prevailing there is a strong tendency to convert goods into cash as rapidly as possible.

Bank exchanges, especially in the large commercial centers, eloquently testify to the exceptionally heavy earnings of the working classes, who, because of extraordinary employment, are bearing high prices with equanimity.

There is, however, a more clearly defined tendency to ask if prices have not already gone too high, and for the time being, at least, it is probable that further buying will move along more conservative lines; that is, needs will be covered and when they develop, the desire being to guard against over-stocking with high-priced goods.

"My son nineteen years of age suffered frequently from bilious attacks. My husband brought home a bottle of Chamberlain's Tablets and began giving them to him. They helped him right away. He began to eat heartily and picked up right along." writes Mrs. Thomas Crockett, Kirkville, N. Y. Obtainable everywhere.

CHICKEN-STEALING CASE

Colored Residents of South Columbus Street Make Charges and Denials in Police Court

Most of the time of the Police Court this morning was consumed in investigating the case of Samuel Meadows, colored, vs. Bettie McPherson, also colored, in which the complainant alleged that the defendant's daughter had stolen one of his chickens and carried it into her mother's house. The case had been continued on two occasions this week. The alleged theft was committed Tuesday week. C. Keith Carlin representer the McPherson woman, and Robinson Moncure the prosecution.

Meadows put a colored woman on the stand who testified that she saw the girl spread corn near a rooster belonging to Meadows, and when it drew near she seized the fowl and carried it into her mother's house.

After several witnesses had been examined by the lawyers and the court, nothing positive was established on either side. Meadows alleged he saw the feathers on a dump pile, but he saw no one place them there.

The little girl in the case was non est, and Justice Caton sent an officer for her, and the court recessed until he she could be produced. She was later brought into court by Officer Zell, but her testimony added nothing new, and the woman was dismissed.

MEN'S MEETING LAST NIGHT

Get Rid of That Miserable Feeling

There are few diseases that make one feel more miserable than a disordered stomach. Mrs. A. Wingale Gorham, N. Y., writes: "I began using Chamberlain's Tablets about five years ago. At that time I was having a great deal of trouble with my stomach. I suffered great distress due to indigestion and constipation. Nothing did me much good until I got Chamberlain's Tablets." PAFF CO'S SHOES BOOST.

situated the cutting and sewing rooms. The patterns for the various sizes and shapes are cut by nimble fingers and then go to the other side of the room to be sewn together and gotten ready for the soling and heeling operations on the floor below. In the cutting room there is what is an innovation in shoe factories and that is that among the cutters are two young women who seem to be as much "on the job" as are the men cutters. Until a short time ago women cutters were unknown.

On the floor below the shoes are turned. There are various kinds of distinctive makes of shoes just as there are grades. One of the best known of these is the McKay, but the Paff shoe is what is known as a "turned" shoe. This name comes from the fact that a great part of the work of the shoe is done to it while it is inside out. It is only when it nears completion that it is turned right side out. This system has been productive of some of the really wonderful machinery the factory holds. On this floor also the heels and soles and certain finishing touches are added.

A shoe goes through a great many hands before it reaches the packing room on the main floor. Probably a score of persons have added their mite of labor to it as it passed along from bench to bench and hand to hand on its way to its destination.

Many Styles of Footwear

In the old days there were very few styles of shoes. Today there are thousands of varieties of style and shape. The men who regulate these have to be far-seeing and possess large experience. And even the babies and older children who wear the Paff shoes have their likes and dislikes and whims. It would be fatal to make too large a consignment of any one particular style. The men who have charge of the direction of this part of the work in the Paff company are: W. Fraser Baldwin, general manager; A. G. Poss, superintendent; H. B. Gorman, system superintendent and sales manager. Within a month or two there has also come to the factory A. L. Williamson, of Newburyport, Mass., who is a shoe expert and who is acting in connection with the other managers of the plant in promoting geeral efficiecy.

With the exception of Messrs. Williamson and Gorman all the employees of the factory, averaging in number from one hundred to one-hundred and fifty, are local people. The Paff Shoe Company is thus a valuable local asset. Its work is regular and its employes are well-paid for their labor. A very great many people of Alexandria, who have not inspected the factory or kept in touch with its activities, have not realized its value to the community. It is expected that in the near fuure its annual output will come close to the quarter of a million dollar mark in value.

UNSHAKEN TESTIMONEY

Time is the test of truth. And Doan's Kidney Pills have stood the test in Alexandria. No Alexandria resident who suffers backache, or annoying urinary ills can remain unconvinced by this twice-told testimony.

Mrs. Martha Byrne, 209 Wilkes street, Alexandria, says: "I suffered severely from backaches and pains throughout my body. My kidneys were badly disordered and the kidney secretions were unnatural. I was steadily running down in health, when a friend advised me to try Doan's Kidney Pills. The first box greatly benefited me, so I kept on using them and I now enjoy good health."

The above statement was given in November 1910, and on April 9, 1915 Mrs. Byrne said: "I very seldom have any trouble with my kidneys now. Doan's Kidney Pills are responsible for my present good health."

Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Byrne has twice publisly recommended. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.

To All Democrats:

The undersigned were appointed by the National Democratic Committee as Auxiliary Finance Committee, for the City of Alexandria, and have received an urgent request that we call upon all Democrats to help the cause.

Alexandria Democrats have thus far done nothing.

We, therefore, call upon every democrat in Alexandria and surrounding country to send us such contribution as he or she can, whether large or small.

Send something, if only a few cents, and show your interest. We will thankfully receive any aid whether $100 or 10 cents.

Remember that this is a big country and that there are many close and doubtful states; and the National Committee must have large means to carry on a successful fight.

The Republicans have large interests that contribute to their overflowing treasury.

The Democrats must depend upon voluntary offerings, and mainly upon a great number of small ones, to make up their necessitous treasury. Send your contribution to any member of the Committee, and, whether it be large or small, please send at once.

It is greatly needed.

This is a call to women as well as men.

tion of every chapter in raising a fund to make a memorial one the South can point to with pride.

It is our wish and hope that U. D. C. chapters will furnish and endow, for $1,000 the room on the ground floor adjoining the Seventeenth Virginia Regiment Chapter room, to be used for the widow or daughter of a veteran, who can be sent to us from any part of Virginia.

Our home is paid for; we have no debt and up to this time $1,500 has been paid for improvements, and we are incorporated under the State laws of Virginia.

It is not our wish to make the Anne Lee Memorial Home for the Aged a local institution; it should be a memorial made by Southern women. And we appeal not only to U. D. C. chapters, but to every Southern woman individually to give $1 (or more) to an endowment fund. And we feel so fully assured of your sympathy and interest we are satisfied we shall not ask in vain. And we trust our Daughters as a whole will respond with widespread enthusiasm to this appeal; do not let us feel outside interest is greater than ours.

Desperate and important fighting took place yesterday on both the Gorizia and Trentino fronts in the Italian theater of war. Pressing eastward from Oppacichiasella, the Italians wrested Novavas from the Austrians. This victory for the Italians is admitted officially by Vienna. The Austrians also admit that in a series of violent attacks, father south, the Italians repeatedly swept over first-line trenches.
